Also, a series of different industrial or similar uses upon a site could potentially increase the number of chemicals which are present.

9. Evidence (written letter) and photograph that Public Notice sign has been posted, indicating location(s) on site and date.

Approval Authority – Submission of Application

Division of a parcel of land into several smaller lots usually requires approval of a plan of subdivision. In the Township of West Lincoln, the approval authority for all plans of subdivision lies with the Township Council. Any application for subdivision in the Township of West Lincoln must be submitted to the Township’s Planning Department. Pre-consultation with the Township Planning Department and with public agencies like to have an interest in the proposal is encouraged. This is a particularly true where a subdivision also involves an Official Plan Amendment and/or a Zoning By-law Amendment.

Evaluation of Applications

The subdivision review and approval process plays a key role in the land development process. It establishes the conditions under which land may be divided and sold, future street and neighborhood patterns, parks and other community facilities, community housing, and commercial and employment opportunities.

The purpose of the subdivision review and approval process is to ensure that:

- the land is suited to its intended use;
- the subdivision conforms with applicable planning legislation;
- municipal services are or can readily be made available;
- the community and individual citizens are protected from inappropriate development which could detract from the community; and
- lot purchasers obtain undisputed title to their new property.

Major Stages in Processing an Application

The processing of most subdivision applications usually involves the following major stages:

- submission of “complete” application;
- circulation and public notification;

- review of comments/recommendations on draft approval;
- dispute resolution or referral/appeal to OMB;
- draft approval with conditions;
- clearance of conditions by applicant; and
- final approval and registration.

APPENDIX "A-2"

All applications may not go through each of these stages. Each stage usually involves many steps depending on the complexity of the application and the response of government agencies, special interest groups, consultants, and the public.

Circulation, Review and Public Notification

A complete application may require several months to obtain draft approval depending on its complexity. Much of this time is devoted to review of the proposal by numerous public agencies, analysis of comments submitted to the Township and negotiations between interested parties where a problem emerges. During this period, property owners within 120m of the subdivision site are notified of the application and a public meeting is held to discuss the proposal. Finally, a staff report on the proposal is submitted to the General Committee and Council for consideration. Usually, that report recommends that draft approval be granted subject to a list of conditions recommended by the agencies reviewing the application plus any revisions recommended by the Township Departments and the public.

Township Decision

Council makes a decision to grant draft approval to a subdivision subject to a list of conditions which must be fulfilled by the applicant. Notice of this decision is then given to the applicant, the public, and review agencies. However, the decision to grant draft approval is not effective until after a 20 day appeal period expires. If no appeals are received, draft approval is formally granted. If an appeal is lodged with the Township, the application is automatically forwarded to the OMB for a ruling. Once draft approval is granted, the applicant may proceed with the subdivision subject to the conditions applied, prepare the site for development, and enter into agreements to sell lots once they are registered.

Final approval is granted by the Township once the applicant has fulfilled all the conditions of approval. The plan may then be registered and individual lots within the subdivision may be sold.

Fees

Fees established by the Township for processing subdivision applications are set out in Appendix "B". The fee is an administration charge associated with the initial review of the application which is payable upon submission of an application. The fee does not include administration, engineering, legal and other costs incurred by the Township in preparing subdivision agreements.
